

Biography:

WENDY ZOLTY

BILLING MANAGER

vCard

Wendy Zolty joined GlassRatner in March 2012 as the Billing Manager. Wendy handles the firm's invoicing and billing needs. Prior to joining GlassRatner, she spent several years working for the IUA-UCF and Chabad House where she specialized in event planning, marketing, managing various fund raising projects, public relations and publicity. Wendy then went worked as a freelance journalist for a weekly newspaper called the Voice. While in South Africa, she managed a book store for Ohr Somayach, while assisting with their outreach movement. After her immigration to America, Wendy has a long history of consulting work based in sales, marketing, manuscript editing, and website writing and editing.

Wendy received her BA in Industrial Psychology and Philosophy from the University of the Witwatersrand and a diploma in Public Relations from Birnam Business College in South Africa.