

Biography:

KELLEY GASTINEAU

MANAGING DIRECTOR

vCard

Kelley Gastineau joined GlassRatner in 2016. Her professional background and experience includes consulting with both public and private companies, government agencies and individuals on a variety of litigation and financial matters. Ms. Gastineau has sixteen years of experience performing this work for both plaintiffs and defendants over a variety of industries including:

- Finance/banking
- Hi-tech
- Biotechnology
- Construction
- Real estate
- Apparel
- Entertainment

Ms. Gastineau's business and commercial litigation and consulting experience includes:

- Lost profits and commercial damages analysis
- Fraud investigations
- Ponzi scheme analysis
- Asset tracing
- Shareholder and partnership disputes
- Assessment of accounting and contract compliance
- Conducting late fee studies
- Quantifying business interruption losses
- Conducting royalty audits
- Performing business valuations
- Intellectual property damages analysis

In addition, Ms. Gastineau has experience quantifying labor and employment damages, specifically, economic damages in wrongful termination cases. Her experience includes the analysis of alleged wage and hour claims, calculations of alleged lost employee stock options and company benefits, conducting research on labor and employment statistics, constructing analytical databases from human resource and payroll data and modeling a company's promotional process.

Prior to joining GlassRatner, Ms. Gastineau held a senior management position at Nathan Associates Inc., an economic consulting firm, was a forensic advisory services manager at Deloitte and a dispute analysis and investigations consultant at PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Ms. Gastineau attended University of California, Irvine, earning a degree in Criminology, Law and Society. In her free time, she enjoys the ocean and water sports with her family, camping, reading, yoga, traveling and participating in philanthropic community activities.