

Biography:

DANIEL SCOULER Jr.

SENIOR MANAGING DIRECTOR - NATIONAL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

vCard

Dan Scouler has approximately 12 years of experience in the Corporate Restructuring and Turnaround industries, focusing on financially distressed middle market companies. Drawing on more than 17 years of marketing and sales in financial services, Mr. Scouler works with financial institutions, law firms, and private equity groups to develop relationships, source opportunities, and build the GlassRatner brand. Dan is an expert in identifying opportunities and building the appropriate internal team to service the client's needs.

Prior to joining GlassRatner, Mr. Scouler served as the Director of Business Development at Amherst Partners, charged with sourcing new Restructuring and Turnaround assignments and helping market and brand the firm. Prior to Amherst, Mr. Scouler was a Principal at Scouler & Company, a national Restructuring and Turnaround firm. Initially, Mr. Scouler was part of the service delivery team and then moved into the role of brand building and business development. Mr. Scouler developed markets, sourced opportunities, opened offices, and recruited professionals nationwide. Prior to joining Scouler & Company, Mr. Scouler was a Senior Vice President at Morgan Stanley and Wachovia Securities.

Mr. Scouler has sourced many notable and industry-award winning client assignments; including Contessa Premium Foods, Crabtree & Evelyn, Z-Gallerie, Bender Shipbuilding, Oracle Packaging, Qualteq, Hot Dog on a Stick, and Rhythm & Hues, the Oscar winning animation studio.

Mr. Scouler received a B.S. in Political Science from Dickinson College. Mr. Scouler currently serves on the Board of the CFA Carolinas Chapter, the Membership Committee of the TMA Carolinas Chapter and the Sponsorship Committee of the CFA Midwest/Chicago Chapter.
