Providing Institutional-Grade Support and Services to Automotive Clients

Since the 1970s, GlassRatner's professionals have been working with automobile and truck dealerships in all areas of business — including buying and selling, raising of capital for dealers, restructuring of debt for dealers (including bankruptcy services), and fraud detection. We've represented more than 100 dealerships and generated sales proceeds in excess of $500 million on behalf of our clients.

Because our team includes professionals who have worked as dealership owners, managers and principals, we possess superior automotive industry knowledge. Penetrating, in-depth industry knowledge is the foundation of our service.

Our automotive specialists are part of a national award-winning firm. GlassRatner has offices all over the continental U.S., which enables us to provide unmatched support and leverage institutional-grade capabilities, including access to the capital markets and over 100 skilled professionals with diverse skill sets to address any issues for our clients.

Automotive Capabilities:

- Buy-side and sell-side mergers and acquisitions
- Capital raising including debt, mezzanine and equity for dealers
- Valuations of dealerships
- Restructuring of debt

Mike Issa is a two-time Middle Market Deal of the Year award winner, and has been involved in approximately 40 dealership transactions. He has also run and sold a dealership as a court-appointed receiver. Issa advised on one of the highest prices ever paid for two Southern California Land Rover-Jaguar dealerships out of bankruptcy, yielding a goodwill consideration of over $9 million for the debtors. A CPA and former banker, he has been instrumental in the financial and operational turnaround of a number of struggling dealerships. Issa has given expert testimony in "bet the company" automotive litigation matters and is the "go-to" expert witness on the West Coast. With his extensive background in the industry, Issa is often published and cited in articles in the automotive press.
