

Infectious Persons Handling Course

Ebola Response Training

The emergency services system is the lead activity to provide emergency care for known or suspected Ebola Patients. With uncontrollable environments and the requirement for rapid decision making during an emergency response, conditioned based training is required to properly prepare our first responders and emergency services personnel.

In this tailored program Students are led through proper guidelines and safe practices for responding to known or suspected Ebola incidents

Learn more and register at www.guardiancenters.com and click "Courses"

* Open to Emergency Services and Public Health.
To learn more or register, visit www.guardiancenters.com

Contact us

Guardian Centers
600 Perry Parkway
Perry GA 31069

Vann Burkart | Program Manager

Phone (478) 224 - 5700
FAX (478) 224 - 5701

vburkart@guardiancenters.com

